PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2021 - present Library Customer Advisor - The Cincinnati & Hamilton County Public Library Cincinnati, OH

As a creative connector, I bridge the gap between customers, community resources, and public programming through strategic planning and collaborative execution of branch-specific programs, such as Plant Club and Clifton Welcome & Connect.

2016 - present Writer & Researcher - Untold Content, Cincinnati, OH

Technical Editor & Writer | Writer with 6+ years experience coordinating and supporting ideation, research, writing, revision, and design for documents and publications across genre and discipline, especially among healthcare organizations.

Skilled Researcher & Story Collector | Researcher equipped with arts-based and qualitative approaches to human-centered research with publication development skills that enhance and enliven data collection, and reporting processes; training IRB protocol and qualitative research methods, including literature reviews, thematic analysis, mixed methods study design, and focus group facilitation; and experience strategizing and writing web and print publications, including grant proposals, research reports, peer-reviewed publications policy documents, user guides, infographics, press releases, website copy, blog posts, and social media marketing materials.

2021 - present Artist Educator - Pones, Cincinnati, OH

Narrative Medicine Facilitator | Educator investigating the healing capabilities of the arts through poetry, radical listening, mindful movement, and narrative-sharing in medical settings, including the VA Hospital and Trihealth Good Samaritan Hospital. To her, the arts offer opportunities for all those who deliver and receive care to attune to, and deeply engage with, self and others. Responsibilities include collaborative program development with hospital decision-makers and workshop facilitation for patients.

2018 - present Co-founder & Artist - Continuance, Cincinnati, OH

Grant Writer & Project Manager | A co-founding member of the collective with experience organizing and pursuing funding for projects that support interdisciplinary and community participatory art, such as CreativeMornings, Community Matters, WavePool, and ArtWorks (BLINK). Grants won from the Contemporary Arts Center, Price Hill Will, and People's Liberty. Through artist collaborations, Continuance members plan and execute story collection events, art installations, and web-based audio experiences that celebrate community stories.
